Printed assessments, Windsor Twp. continued:

1783, (no Widow Bartley)
Jacob Berckle 175 acres 7 inhabitants p .696
This would seem to imply that Widow Bartley was head of the family until her death in 1782; Jacob of Windsor appears in the U. S. Census 1790 as Jacob Bartley. The spelling depended upon who was taking the assessment or the census.

1780, Christian Barkley born Sept. 26. (Pittsburgh mss.)
Michael born the same day? Christian and Michael are mention next to each other in their father's will, and in 1798 Christian and Michael Berkel, both aged 17, were confirmed at Christ Lutheran Church, York, Pa. So apparently they were twins.

Biographical Record, p. 91
"Jonathan G. Barclay obtained his early knowledge of books in the district school; and under the instruction of his father, with whom he remained until 23 years old, he acquired skill in the agricultural arts In 1869 when ready to establish himself as a householder, he bought his present farm of 157 acres in Jefferson Twp. where he has since devoted himself diligently and profitably to general farming and to stock raising and dealing. His estate ranks with the best in this part of the county. Mr. Barkley is a steadfast Republican. He has rendered good service to his township as Assessor, one term, and as school director nine years.

On 9-12-1869 Jonathan G. Barclay married Eva Baker daughter of Solomon and Susan (Bearl) Baker, formerly of Jefferson Twp. They were members of the Lutheran Church and Mr. Baker was for 15 years J.P. and at one time a school director. Of their four children, three grew to mature years:

1. George W. Baker m. Julia Hunter--3 children (Henry Ludwig, John S.)
2. Eva Baker m. Jonathan G. Barclay
3. Drucilla Baker m. Wm. H. Barron - 6 children: Cora, Edward, Emma, Ruth, Ryan and Lottie -Barron

"Using his brains as well as his hands, George Barclay met with success in his agricultural labors -- his estate being greatly improved under his skillful management and its value being materially increased. He married Mary Miller, dau. of David & Rebecca Miller, and they both were for many years among the most influential workers of the Lutheran Church in which he was an Elder. He was identified with the Republican party, and served his fellow townsmen in various offices of trust. He was a school director twelve years, Justice of the Peace 30 years. He reared four children:

1840 Census would show whether Daniel and Susan who appear in 1850 Census were twins or husband & wife, which is another possibility, unless you can tell from 1850 showing whether they were married.

*Jefferson Co., History Beers 1917 p 664
Children by first marriage of Jacob Zufall were: Abrahm, Isaac, Jacob B., Joseph, and Adaline
Jacob Zufall married 2nd_____ and had; Andrew, Lydia and Katie.

Jacob B. Zufall - son of Lullia Barkley (dau. of your Joseph) was born in Westmoreland Co. This Jacob B. Zufall married Anna Carpenter, dau. of Thomas Carpenter Jacob B. Zufall died at 40 years of age, and his wife died two years later. They left but one child Twila M. Zufall who married in 1911 Mr. Harry M. Buhite of Winslow Twp., Jefferson Co., Pa. This Harry M. Buhite was born January 1891. This couple had three children in 1917 then the history was written: Mary, Annabelle, and Dorothy. Jefferson Co., Pa. marriage records should tell you who these daughters married if you wish to trace them. (Brookville, Pa.)
